The PRESIDENT,
The White House

SIR: I have the honor to submit for your consideration a request for supplemental appropriation language for the Department of Agriculture to enable the Commodity Credit Corporation to borrow sufficient funds from the Treasury to finance projected obligations through fiscal year 1986.

I have carefully reviewed the proposal contained in this document and am satisfied that this request is necessary at this time. I recommend, therefore, that this proposal be transmitted to the Congress.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION

REIMBURSEMENT FOR NET REALIZED LOSSES

For reimbursement to the Commodity Credit Corporation for net realized losses sustained or anticipated, but not previously reimbursed, such sums as may be necessary are available in this and subsequent years, as authorized by the Act of August 17, 1961 (15 U.S.C. 713A-11, 713A-12).

This proposed language would provide the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) with a permanent indefinite appropriation to enable to CCC to borrow sufficient funds from the Treasury to meet its projected program obligations through fiscal year 1986. This proposal would not directly affect outlays.
